

TSGCT Behavior Contract

Actors agree to the following rules and acts of courtesy while participating in any TSGCT Camp, class, performance, or event.

- Actors will always interact respectfully with Miss Wendy and her staff as well as all employees of the building, parents, and other participants.
- Actors will always work as a team with other participants and respect each other's differences.
- Actors will always dress appropriately and comfortably, they will not wear flip flops or high heeled shoes. (Sneakers or jazz shoes are preferable. Jewelry should not be dangly.)
- Actors will always keep electronics at home.
- Actors will always keep their cell phones in a pocket or secure location. They will not to have it out or use it unless in an emergency.
- Actors will always do their best to remain quiet while others are rehearsing or performing.
- Actors will always respect our rehearsal and performance space.
- Actors will always walk to the restroom with a buddy.
- Actors will always clean up after themselves before exiting the building, including taking care of all props and hanging up costumes.

- Actors will NOT in any way negatively represent TSGCT.
- Actors will NOT touch others, rough house, or use foul language.
- Actors will NOT chew gum.
- Actors will NOT touch, harm, or destroy property or any items not assigned to them.
- Actors will NOT hold Miss Wendy or TSGCT responsible for any items lost, stolen, or damaged.

Actors understand that they will be asked to withdraw from a camp, class, performance, or event without refund if they have to be spoken to about their behavior after 3 times unless in extreme situations at the discretion of Miss Wendy and her staff where they will be asked to withdraw immediately.